The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of the revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

No. 161.—His Highness the Maharaja's Government hereby sanction the introduction of the following rules in respect of Government Savings Banks in supersession of all existing Rules on the subject.

The new rules will come into force from the 1st April 1888.

I.—In these Rules—

"Depositor" and "Deposit" bear the meaning which they bear in The Government Savings Bank Act, 1873.

"Account" means the account of a Depositor in a Government Savings Bank.

"Balance" means the balance at credit of an account.

II.—Any person may become a Depositor on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other named person dependent upon him. Deposits may also be made by the Managers of Benevolent or other Public Associations or by Public Officers, of money deposited with them ex-officio as security for the discharge of any public duty or for the fidelity of any Public Officer, or for the accomplishment of any public object.

III.—Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the Government of Mysore guarantees the repayment of every deposit, with interest.

IV.—Without the sanction of the Comptroller, no Account will be opened for less than One Rupee, and no person may deposit more than Five Thousand Rupees in all, between the 1st of April in any year and the 31st March of the following year.

V.—Interest will not be allowed upon a smaller balance than Rs. $1\frac{2}{3}$, or upon the excess in any balance over the highest multiple of Rs. $1\frac{2}{3}$.

VI.—Interest will be allowed for each Calendar Month upon the minimum Balance of the Account between the close of the Fourth Day and the end of the Month.

VII.—Till further notice, interest will be allowed upon deposits at the rate of one pie a Month for every Rs. 1—10—8, which is equal to one anna for every Rs. 20, being at the rate of Rs. $3\frac{3}{4}$ per centum per annum. Without the sanction of the Comptroller, no higher Monthly Interest will be allowed upon any balance than Rs. $15\frac{5}{8}$; being the interest upon Rs. 5,000.

In calculating interest, one anna will be taken as the interest for one month on every twenty rupees of the amount entitled to bear interest; and for broken sums below twenty rupees the following table will be used :—

Principal.			Interest.		Principal.			Interest.
Rs.	A.	P.	A.	P.	Rs.	A.	P.	A.	P.
1	10	8	0	1	11	10	8	0	7

5	0	0	0	3	15	0	0	0	9

8	5	4	0	5	18	5	4	0	11
10	0	0	0	6	20	0	0	1	0

Example.—Required interest for one month on Rs. 134—6—10.

		Rs.	A.	P.			Rs.	A.	P.
Interest on ..	..	120	0	0	..	..	0	6	0
,, ..	..	14	6	10	..	..	0	0	8
Total....		134	6	10	Total....		0	6	8

VIII.—Every Account will be made up on the 31st March, and the interest then due, calculated under these Rules, added to the Balance upon which future interest will accrue. If an account is closed on any other date, interest due to the end of the preceding Calendar Month will be paid to the Depositor: but a Depositor who closes an Account should not, ordinarily, be permitted immediately to re-open it, except on payment of a fine varying at the discretion of the Treasury Officer from One to Ten Rupees.

IX.—Whenever a Depositor changes his residence, an Account may be transferred, free of charge, to the Government Savings Bank in the District to which the Depositor is removing. Without the special permission of the Comptroller, an Account may not be otherwise transferred from one Bank to another.

X.—A Deposit Book will be supplied to each Depositor, in which the Treasury Officer, will acknowledge every Deposit. The personal attendance of a Depositor is not required; but no Deposit will be received, or payment made, without the Depositor's Deposit Book, and the Government will not be responsible for any Deposit the receipt of which is not acknowledged in a Deposit Book. The interest, due to date, will be entered in each Deposit Book the first time that it is produced after the 31st March. The first Deposit Book will be supplied free of charge; but, if a Deposit Book is lost or injured, or if a Closed Account is re-opened, One Rupee will be charged for a new book.

XI.—Without special permission, a Depositor may not draw upon his Account more than once in thirty days, or open more than one Account in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or for his own benefit or the benefit of any member of his family. The Comptroller must take precautions to prevent any transgression of this Rule, and, in particular, any employment of an Account as an ordinary drawing Account. This Rule is not meant to prevent any one from opening more than one ex-officio or public Account.

XII.—The Treasury Officer may refuse to open any Account or may close any Account, for any sufficient reason, as, for example, because he thinks that the Account is likely to be used, or is being used, contrary to the object with which Government Savings Banks are established, namely, the encouragement of saving. But every such refusal or closure, and the reasons for it, should be reported to the Comptroller.

XIII.—When the Treasury Officer thinks it proper to close any Account, he shall give notice in writing to the Depositor of such closure. After the date of such notice, no Deposit shall be accepted on the Account so closed and no interest shall be allowed upon the Balance of the Closed Account after the end of the Calendar Month then current.

XIV.—These Rules apply as well to Accounts opened before as after their publication. Save that upon Accounts opened before the date of these Rules, interest will be calculated, up to the 31st March 1888, at the rate of $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum per annum.

XV.—The Government of Mysore reserves the right to alter or add to these Rules at any time.

XVI.—A copy of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, and of these Rules, shall be printed in each Deposit Book delivered after this date, and the signature, or, if he cannot write, mark, of the Depositor obtained to the annexed declaration before any deposit is accepted from him.

XVII.—These Rules shall come into force from the 1st April 1888.

Declaration to be recorded in accordance with Rule XVI.

I, acknowledge that I have read these Rules (or, if he cannot read, that these rules have been read to me).
